

Faculty Senate Mid-Semester Meeting Minutes
Weimer Hall, Room 3032
3:00 – 4:00 PM
March 9, 2023

Meeting was called to order at 3:05 PM

I. College Mentoring Policy

The Faculty Welfare and Development committee presented its proposal for refinement to the college's current mentor program as an information item. Dan Windels, committee chair, presented the FWD committee's suggestions for clarifying the guidelines to the program and its participants. Faculty will vote to approve (or oppose) the item at the end-of-semester meeting.

II. Spring Nominations for CJC Elections

Joanna Hernandez presented an orientation on the spring elections process, including information about the nominations period and the Faculty Senate's timeline for elections.

III. Dean's Q&A

By invitation from the Faculty Senate, Dean Hub Brown made himself available for question-and-answer to address faculty concerns about University business and current issues that seemed to define the top administration's goals.

The meeting adjourned at 4:00 PM
