Guests: House, Brown

Dean Brown met with faculty, talked about need to meet regularly, strategic funding. He went over the various levels of strategic funding and ideas (CJX x DC), and said some levels of funding are still open for proposals.

Spiker updated on funding levels and what was proposed for strategic 1 (including news/immersion expansion).

Barnett updated on strategic planning and wanting to look into expanding language on teaching. Sheehan suggested expansion on service.

Kalyanaraman gave an update on the tenure-track search (100+ applications reviewed)

Barnett reminded about Drew Harwell's visit as Science Journalist in Residence (WashPo covering AI).

Sheehan followed up on UF CJC Town Hall on SB 266. Spiker updated on Hearst kickoff meeting (60+ students RSVP'd).

Respectfully submitted,
Ted Spiker
